

New deadline for Epica Awards 2020

The Epica Awards has announced that the closing date for entries for this year's awards is 15 October. This is due to the crisis caused by the Covid-19 pandemic and to attract the more great creative work for the jury.

The shortlist will be announced on 1 December and the awards ceremony and screening of the winners will take place virtually on 17 December. Agencies can register and submit their entries here.
