

Publication launched to highlight civil society's role in the HIV/Aids pandemic

The Civil Society Organisations launched a special publication titled the South African Civil Society and AIDS Response: Recognising the Past, Securing the Future at Ubuntu Kraal in Soweto.

The publication documents, critiques, and celebrates the role that the civil society plays with a focus on South Africa's turnaround strategy on HIV and Aids from 2007/2008 until now.
