

RCCI News account for AstraGraphics and Velvet Square

In a joint venture, AstraGraphics and Velvet Square have recently been appointed as the contract publishers for the Randburg Chamber of Commerce and Industry's internal magazine.

Named RCCI News, this high gloss magazine is published and distributed to all the RCCI members on a quarterly basis. The first issue was launched in November 2005.

AstraGraphics is a graphic design and publishing company that is owned and managed by Allan Swart, who has been appointed as the publisher of RCCI News. Michelle Swart, sole member of Velvet Square, an outsourced editorial solutions company, is co-publisher and editor of the magazine, and Jackie Glaum has been appointed as the advertising sales consultant.

The editorial component is designed to be informative and interesting for business owners in the Randburg area and features articles across a broad spectrum of business issues and happenings within the Randburg community.

The next issue of RCCI News will be distributed in February 2006.
