

HMC Seswa appoints new Account Director

Michele Turner, an experienced account manager who has worked with HMC Seswa for more than five years, has been appointed as Account Director with effect from 1 March 2006.

Her appointment signals a further development in the growth of HMC Seswa Corporate Communications since its acquisition by Mazole Holdings, the Black-owned marketing and business investments group.

Since Mazole Holdings acquired the company in August 2005, client and billings have effectively doubled.
