

Dashboard appoints new account director

Research and strategy company, Dashboard Marketing Intelligence, has appointed Sarah Larter as an account director. Dashboard is gearing up for an e-commerce boom in Africa. Larter's experience with brands and how they are measured and perceived in multiple different channels will add to Dashboard's expertise in this area.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>