The South African Style Awards celebrates individuals who have, in their respective career fields, disrupted the creative process of business.

13 winners were announced at an intimate dinner hosted at the Zebra Square Gallery, dealers in classic cars, future classics and supercars located in Hyde Park Corner Shopping Centre, the quintessential 'destination centre' for discerning shoppers, housing luxury brands and fine dining establishments.

The winners include:

- Most Innovative Style: Content creator and businesswoman, Kim Jayde
- Most Stylish Performing Artist in Film/TV: Nambitha Ben-Mazwi
- Most Stylish Performing Artist in Music: Boity Thulo
- Most Stylish Media Personality: Leanne Manas
- Most Stylish Fashion Designer: Craig Jacobs
- Most Stylish Model: Rosette Ncwana
- Most Stylish Business Personality: Jeff and Teddy Zaki

- Most Stylish Couple: Lamiez Holworthy and Khuli Chana
- Most Stylish Changemaker: Refilwe Modiselle
- The Next Big Thing: Galaletsang Tshungu, also known as Halle Robinson, and Lebo George Molaolwa, also known as Lebo Molax
- SA Style Awards Achievement in Business Award: Lerato Kganyago
- Style Icon: Sipho 'Hotstix' Mabuse.

The winners and guests toasted with Valdo by Vinitalia and received luxurious gifts from Panier des Sens, a brand of French origin that embraces eco-friendly values and is passionate about sustainability.

The dinner was a prelude to the much anticipated and highly acclaimed SA Style Awards ceremony to be held on 12 February with a nod to the international awards season.
