

Radio station shows that comedy is serious business

Starting this Saturday, 25 October 2008, is The Sampson Show - where comedy is a serious business - on Bush Radio, 6 - 8pm. Each week comedian Mark Sampson will interview a top South African comedian (Kurt Schoonraad on 23 October and Stuart Taylor on 1 November), play a comedy clip from guests, find out how hip guests are, what their top favourite bands and five most-hated songs are, and what they would like to bin forever. There will also be Noit for Noit!, Karoo Comedy Clips, Joke Jury, Jingle Bunnies and Fridges of the Famous.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>