

Siphiwo Magoda to host Umhlobo Wenene's Umxholo

Umhlobo Wenene FM has appointed veteran SABC broadcaster, Siphiwo Magoda as its new talk show host following Luzuko Koti's departure. Magoda is to present the station midnight talk show, Umxholo from 1 February.

Magoda started his career in radio at Radio Transkei in 1982 and during his time at the station, he held several roles including operations controller, reporter and news reader, senior reporter, news and current affairs presenter. In addition to Magoda's vast experience at the SABC, he also spent some time working at the BBC in London and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Toronto.
