

Middle East/Africa is one of One Screen Fest's new regional categories

To accommodate submissions from all over the world, the One Club for Creativity has added five regional categories to the One Screen short film festival. The new regional categories for filmmakers and advertising creatives to enter will have an award presented for each region.

The five regions are:

- Asia-Pacific
- Europe
- Latin America
- North America
- Middle East/Africa

Entrants may submit films directly into the regional categories or may enter a film into any of the other categories and as a regional consideration for a small fee.

The early bird entry is 26 November, while the regular deadline is 6 December and the late-free entry deadline is on 13 December. Click here to enter.
