

EuroFresh Exotics amongst AFIF Entrepreneurship Award 2017 nominees

EuroFresh Exotics and five other African-based projects have been included in the 2017 AFIF Entrepreneurship Award nominations. The Kenya-based company is being acknowledged for the innovative techniques it uses in producing and exporting fresh fruit and vegetables.

EuroFresh Exotics founder, Lydia Wambui is to present her company to SMEs managers, entrepreneurs, investors and government representatives coming from across Africa at the Africa Finance & Investment Forum 2017 which will be held in mid-February. The award recipient will receive a cash prize and one year of national and international media promotion.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>