

New Opera Mini for Android

OSLO, NORWAY: Android users can now enjoy a new version of the Opera Mini mobile browser, available for free from Google Play. Opera Mini's dramatically redesigned interface achieves a native Android look and feel.

In addition to the new user interface, the latest Opera Mini has these features:

- A simplified menu
 - Overhauled speed dial
 - A private-browsing mode
 - Options to customise the browser layout for more thumb-friendly surfing
 - A scalable interface with higher resolution for tablets and large phones
 - Updates to the Discover newsfeed to provide more of the latest content across the web
- A data counter to show daily progress on data savings, helping users keep data costs under control
