

Bester Burke Slingers wins top global university

Monash University has appointed Bester Burke Slingers to manage its brand and communication strategy in South Africa.

Australian-based Monash University opened its South African campus in Gauteng in 2001. Monash has eight campuses - six in Australia, one in Malaysia and one in South Africa. It has teaching centres in the United Kingdom and Italy, and a global network of strategic alliances, partnerships and institutional links.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>