

BuzzTemple anyone?

Some kind of a new PR firm for social media

On a flight from London a few days ago these two guys sitting behind me were chatting about PR and social media. They kept talking about this new PR firm called "Buzz Temple" and how it's going to make some waves in the online PR arena. I think it's related to one of the top US PR firms but I'm not sure. Does anyone know more about this thing?
