

Lufthansa extends free rebooking period to December 2021

The Lufthansa Group Airlines - Lufthansa, Swiss, Austrian Airlines, Brussels Airlines, and Air Dolomiti - has announced the extension of the free rebooking period to December 2021 from the initial 30 April 2020. Passengers will be allowed to change their travel dates by making a one-time rebooking for the same route and class of travel with no additional charges.

This will apply to tickets booked up to and including 30 June 2020, with a confirmed travel date of up to and including 30 April 2021 and the rebooking must be made before the originally planned start of travel. Lufthansa Group Airlines said in a statement that this is a response to the wish of many of its customers to be able to make their travel plans more flexible due to the current circumstances.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>