

VW are big winners at SAVRALA awards

The 21st annual South African Vehicle Rental and Leasing Association (SAVRALA) awards gala dinner was held in Johannesburg recently and saw Volkswagen walking away with most of the awards including its seventh consecutive Manufacturer of The Year award.

Audi received the Tutuka award for the second year in a row. Rental companies decide on the winners of the SAVRALA awards. The companies base their decisions on the interactions that they have with 26 motor manufacturers by using a survey containing several and specified questions.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>