

Power to the people - Africa Utility Week

On the eve of Africa Utility Week - one of the largest energy summits on the subcontinent - Power Africa teamed up with Business Sweden to host a networking reception for Swedish clean energy enterprises, African energy suppliers and funders.

Power Africa is a USAID initiative aimed at delivering 30,000 MW of additional capacity and increasing electricity access by at least 60 million new household and business connections throughout sub-Saharan Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>