

Customer service rated top priority

The top priority for e-business today is customer service. This is according to the second survey of the National Association of Manufacturers / Ernst & Young E-Commerce Trends Index, conducted in the United States. Other important priorities include sales, security and connecting with employees.

Source: FastMoving

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>