

OMNI HR Consulting recognised as Top Performing Company

Issued by Omni HR Consulting 13 Aug 2018

Top Performing Companies and Public Sector is a business-to-business publication that showcases and celebrates remarkable South African organisations in both the public and private sectors.

Organisations are thoroughly researched and top performers are listed in the prestigious publication based on their commitment to the triple bottom line, considering elements such as: people, planet and profit.

"It is with absolute humility that we share Omni HR Consulting's recognition within the circle of Top Performing Companies. Being acknowledged for doing good business is not what it is about. What we do will not be possible without the phenomenal teams who represent OMNI nationally. Our growth, our journey, our ability to stretch boundaries, chart new waters is based on a collective effort from all stakeholders; says Marketing Executive, Cassandra Julius.

Lize Moldenhauer, Managing Director notes: "I am extremely proud to be part of such an amazing organization and team. OMNI's underlying philosophy to continuous success is that we are driven by the relationships we have with our customers: learners, suppliers and employees ("our people"). Our commitment to "our people" knows few boundaries and you will find the Omni team to be trustworthy and reliable, and that we conduct ourselves in a manner that reflects the professionalism of our Omni Brand. We firmly believe in creating standards that others are drawn to and creating collaborative partnerships to make a sustainable difference in the communities we serve.
