

MetroWired successfully implements aerial fibre solution in Lesotho

Issued by MetroWired

30 Sep 2017

MetroWired, in conjunction with Vodacom, has successfully implemented a Broadband over Power Line (BoPL) solution in Lesotho.

The aerial fibre route is built over mountain and rugged terrain using powerlines across three substations in the districts of Mabote, Saint Agnes and Teyateyaneng.

- MetroWired's Communities Wi-Fi programme directly addresses SA's digital divide 9 Feb 2023
- The present state of gender equality in corporate South Africa 31 Aug 2022
- MetroWired wins Huawei Nova Partner of the Year Award 2022 8 Jul 2022
- MetroWired upgrades Dakalo student court facilities at JOSHCO student accommodation, Braamfontein 23 Jun 2022
- Bafana Bafana Class Of '96 Legends hosts celebration Golf Day with MetroWired 16 Mar 2022

MetroWired

MetroWired is a 100% black-owned, Level 1 BEE company founded in 2007. An ICT enabler delivering digital solutions to B2B clients for over 15 years, our globally expanding wealth of knowledge is future-ready, combining technology and people in an evolving technology market.

Profile | News | Contact | Twitter | Facebook | RSS Feed