

Experienced Senior Graphic Designer and Copywriter

Hello. I'm Mirah Bradt. I'm a qualified, experienced, established senior designer specialising in graphic design, brand identity, visual and written communications, digital, and web. Based in Sandton CBD, I work nationwide. I am Adobe trained and certified, working on MacOS, and Adobe Creative Suite platforms.

Choosing to work with me facilitates the building of a powerful professional partnership that evolves intelligently with your business needs to present compelling visual design concepts that are persuasive, relevant, and practical.

From the first concept to final completion, my objective is to translate great concepts into original and effective visual design. Proactive, personal, reliable, reputable, hands-on project management is the foundation for exceptional professional work that is always delivered on time, within budget, and to brief.
