

Zando and Mobicred partner to further shape online shopping in SA

Zando, the South African online fashion e-commerce platform, has announced its partnership with Mobicred, a digital credit provider within the industry. This collaboration aims to enhance the online shopping experience by introducing a seamless digital credit checkout option for customers.

The advertisement is a collage of images and text. In the top left, there's a Zando logo with the text 'ZANDO.CO.ZA' and 'fashion . lifestyle . online' next to a man in sunglasses. In the top right, the Mobicred logo 'mobicred digital credit' is shown. The center features a large teal banner with the text 'SHOP ZANDO WITH MOBICRED' in white. Below this, on the left, is a man in a white t-shirt and jeans with the text 'DIGITAL CREDIT WHEN YOU HAVE TO HAVE IT'. On the right, there's a man in a white t-shirt against a light blue background. A small inset image shows a person's torso in a dark t-shirt with a tag.

Gareth Burge, head of sales and marketing at Mobicred, shared his perspective on the collaboration, stating, "This partnership between Mobicred and Zando opens the door to a world of fashion for Mobicred customers, offering seamless digital credit checkout and unparalleled convenience.

Over the last few years, we've seen the online fashion industry grow to meet the e-commerce needs of customers, and we're shaping a better online shopping experience for South African shoppers."

The alliance between Mobicred and Zando signifies a significant step forward in providing customers with a hassle-free and efficient payment solution. With digital credit checkout, customers can enjoy a more flexible and convenient shopping experience on Zando's platform.

Zando, known for its extensive range of fashion products and commitment to customer satisfaction, sees this partnership as an opportunity to further cater to the evolving needs of its customers. The collaboration is set to elevate the standards of online fashion retail, aligning with the growing trend of digital innovation in the South African market.

Zando's CEO on navigating the future of online shopping in SA
