

Globacom targets two million subscribers in one year

Ghana's 6th mobile phone license holder, Globacom, has projected that its outfit will hit a two million subscriber mark in the first year of operation.

Ghana's telecom industry has been described as the most dramatic and competitive in the sub-region as regards with giant players like Mobile Telecommunications Network, One Touch, Tigo, and the recent entry of Zain, but Globacom intends to surprise them with its multipurpose and inventive products.

Read the full article

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>