

Rosebank International University College launches in Ghana

The Rosebank International University College (RIUC) in Accra, Ghana has officially opened - marking ADvTech Group's first tertiary institution outside of South Africa.

Supplied image: Rosebank International University College in Accra, Ghana

Registrations will open on 15 June 2025, ahead of the first academic semester which begins on 1 September 2025. This will be followed by a second enrolment cycle in February 2026.

Situated in Accra's Airport Residential Area, the RIUC campus will offer a wide range of high-demand qualifications, from doctoral programmes to diplomas. Fifteen qualifications have been accredited to date fields including Business Administration, Digital Marketing, Information Technology, Service Management and Hospitality.

The new RIUC campus builds on ADvTech's existing international presence in Kenya, Botswana, and Ethiopia, reinforcing its commitment to providing quality education across the African continent.

HIGHER EDUCATION

The IIE launches postgrad research centres

13 May 2025

“We are delighted to launch our highly successful Rosebank International brand in Ghana, expanding our tertiary education footprint outside South Africa for the first time. We look forward to delivering the superior academic outcomes and excellent student experiences we are known for in South Africa in Accra,” says ADvTech Group CEO, Geoff Whyte.

A wide array of extracurricular activities will be on offer to students. They will also have access to foundational academic, financial, digital literacy and psycho-social support programmes. The campus will also employ facial recognition access for enhanced security.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>