Some of the bail conditions include:

- House arrest, although he may leave the residence between 7am - 12pm
- He is only allowed to travel within a 20km radius, and may not leave the magisterial district of Tshwane
- He is to hand over his passport
- Electronic monitoring

It was also announced that Pistorius will appeal his murder conviction at the Constitutional Court, after the Supreme Court of Appeal last week replaced his original conviction of culpable homicide with one of murder. The case has been postponed to 18 April 2016.
