

Cape Talk - Unlistenable over weekends

Cape Talks' weekend lineup is dreadful.

Allan Barnard was the last straw. Over the last few years the weekend slot on Cape Talk has gradually gotten worse.

Way too much music and a new morning host whom struggles to make conversation with guests has done it for me.

Who the hell is running the show and making these decisions at Cape Talk? The weekend lineup says nothing for what Cape Talk used to be.

The camels back has been broken, and i've moved on.
