

WeThinkCode launches in Johannesburg

Pioneering tech institution, WeThinkCode, officially opened their campus doors on 4 May 2016 to students eager to become software engineers and announced the 120 coders from across South Africa that have been enlisted to complete their two-year course.

The WeThinkCode venture equips students to become digital problem solvers, creating opportunities in redesigning Africa's future.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>