

Young ones crowned at #OneShow2017

Young global marketing and media professionals were crowned at the The 2017 One Show Young Ones Awards following the two-day Education Festival at which they pitched their campaign and had their portfolios reviewed by a panel of professionals before accepting their respective awards.

Serena-Marie van der Nest of the AAA School, Kirsten Haviland, and Lucia Petschnig from the Stellenbosch Academy of Design made history for South Africa when they become the first three South Africans to walk away with the prestigious award.