

UAE bans non-vaccinated citizens from travelling

The United Arab Emirates will be banning non-vaccinated citizens from travelling abroad and will ban citizens who have not had three doses of a vaccine against Covid-19 from travelling too. The new rule is set to come into effect on 10 January 2022.

Source: Julian Herzog via Wikimedia Commons

The announcement was made by the National Emergency Crisis and Disaster Management Authority and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

“ #NCEMA and @MoFAICUAE: Ban on Travel on UAE citizens unvaccinated with #Covid19 vaccine, starting Jan 10, 2022, with a requirement to obtain the booster dose for the fully vaccinated. With an exemption for medically exempted from taking the vaccine, humanitarian & treatment cases pic.twitter.com/zUwIFoSLBt— NCEMA UAE (@NCEMAUAE) January 1, 2022 ”

Siting the announcement, Emirates news agency, WAM reported that fully vaccinated citizens would also require a booster shot to be eligible to travel. The ban would not apply to those with medical or humanitarian exemptions.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>