

Agbiz appoints new industry liaison and communications officer

Agbiz has appointed a new industry liaison and communications officer.

Following the resignation of the previous marketing and communications manager, the organisation's communications staff underwent restructuring. As a result, two new jobs were created: industry liaison (Liezl Esterhuizen) and communications officer (Temba Msiza). Msiza has taken up the communication duties previously held by Karen Grobler.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>