

Leadership changes at MTN Group

MTN Group has announced that Gordian Kyomukama has been appointed as the new MTN South Sudan CEO, effective 21 January 2020. Gordian is a seasoned telecoms executive, with close to 30 years of experience in the sector, most of which have been with MTN.

MTN Cameroon CEO, Hendrik Kasteel, will be leaving MTN at the end of March 2020, due to personal reasons. He will serve out his notice over the next two months, and a successor will be announced when finalised.
